

STUDY ABROAD AT VICTORIA

Theatre Militia, comprising Victoria Theatre graduates

English, Film, Theatre + Media Studies

The four disciplines taught by the School of English, Film, Theatre and Media Studies are closely linked and share a common focus on the creation and interpretation of texts – written, spoken, theatrical, cinematic, televised and electronic.

The School has a lively and diverse community – diverse in its interests, sociable and intellectually engaged. There are regular discussion groups, seminars, conferences, theatre and social events, ensuring that new students can quickly get to know their peers, intellectually and socially.

A wide range of courses are taught, with international, Asia/Pacific and New Zealand contexts, many of particular interest to Study Abroad students.

The School is also associated with the International Institute of Modern Letters, which is highly active in promoting and fostering contemporary imaginative writing, and has a US office in the Black Mountain Institute at the University of Nevada Las Vegas.
